David Ngo has been in the film and television industry for over 8 years. In the world of post-production, David has worked in documentary, reality-TV, animation, children's programming and feature films. Many of these have screened to international audiences and won awards including the Inside Film Best Animated Short Award and the SASA Best Film Award.

Recent accomplishments include senior editor on the prime-time TV shows My Restaurant Rules and My Generation, the multi-award winning shorts Carnivore Reflux and Collision, the hit children's TV shows The Fairies and The Adventures of Figaro Pho, and the upcoming feature film Broken Hill produced by Chris Wyatt (Napolean Dynamite).

In 2007 David established The Cutting Room (www.thecuttingroom.com.au), a boutique post-production facility. Since it's inaugural year The Cutting Room has completed a wide variety of projects including the SBS series My Generation, ABC's Horace In Slow-Motion and In A League of Their Own, and the feature films Lucky Country and Broken Hill.

Since producing Jackie's Spring Palace (2009 Tropicfest Finalist), David has begun to establish himself as a producer and co-founded the production company Projector Films. The Tropicfest Feature Program soon signed a development deal with David and writer/director Matthew Phipps (Figaro Pho, Poh Ling) to create an 8-part TV series for Movie Network. In 2010 David was selected for the SAFC's FilmLab program which has financed his feature film One Eyed Girl (Director: Nick Matthews).
